ACLI's Medical Section Annual Meeting

February 21 – 24, 2009

St. Petersburg, FL

The Office of Continuing Medical Education is the mechanism through which the extraordinary faculty and resources of University of South Florida College of Medicine are made available to practicing clinicians in their effort to remain abreast of the advances in their field in order to provide the highest level of care to their patients and community.

Who should attend?

This scientific program is designed for life insurance company medical directors and underwriters and other interested parties. Participants represent a wide range of expertise and have day-to-day exposure to current medical issues. Industry suppliers are welcome to attend. Select sessions are eligible for continuing medical education credits.

Where?

The 2009 meeting will be held at the Don CeSar Beach Resort, a Loews Hotel, located in St. Pete Beach, Florida. Don CeSar has 277 guest rooms, most with views of the Gulf of Mexico or Boca Ciega Bay and easy access to the beach, golf shuttles, pools, full-service fitness center and spa. Located just 30 minutes from the Tampa International Airport, this "pink castle in the sand" is a great destination.
